

Pump-house – A and B models

(Applies for Hoyer and IIP pumps).

Inside the Pump-house there is a canal that serves these purposes:

- |                            |                                |
|----------------------------|--------------------------------|
| 1. Mix inlet               | self-adjustment                |
| 2. Recirculation / Booster | neutral                        |
| 3. Cream outlet            | relief at high counterpressure |

Application Scheme

